Puregreenjobs.com opens its virtual doors for business

Bentonville, AR — Puregreenjobs.com officially opened its virtual doors for business today with a goal of matching green employers with green job seekers. Puregreenjobs.com features a user friendly web site, with tips for job seekers, powerful tools for employers and recruiters, information on green conferences, and corporate and political green news.

"I am excited about the possibilities of this Web site," said Frangie Minsky, President of Puregreenjobs.com. "I am hopeful we can play a part in making companies become more sustainable – more green."

Puregreenjobs.com is showcasing their new Web page today at the NWA Green Expo taking place at the Bentonville County Fair Grounds.
